

Women in STEMM: Problems & Progress

International Women's Day

This Int'l Women's Day discussion, cohosted by GradWISE and Gender Buffet, will focus on women in STEMM (science, technology, engineering, math, and medicine), recognizing how far women have come and what more needs to be done to remove barriers affecting women in these fields, personally and professionally.

All folks are welcome to this discussion, whatever field or gender they identify with.

Free caffeine and food will be served.
